

PART ONE: INTRODUCTION AND KEY ISSUES

1. Luc Hens and Emmanuel K. Boon and • Introduction: Changing Views on the Management of Protected Areas 1-7
2. Asamoah Boateng • National Environmental Policies: How Neglected are National Parks? 9-12
3. Emmanuel K. Boon and Dorcas Mbuvi • Environmental Leadership and Management of National Parks: Theory versus Reality 13-31
4. Luc Hens and Jean Hugé • National Parks and Biodiversity Conservation as Instruments for Poverty Reduction 33-41
5. Davis W. Barasa • Conservation and Management of Wildlife in National Parks: From Biological Conservation to Community Participation in East Africa 43-71
6. Charles Takoyoh Eyong, Emmanuel K. Boon and Albert Ahenkan • Of What Value are National Parks? A Case of How Optimization Could Reduce the Current Bedlam in the Korup National Park, Cameroon 73-93
7. Makame Kitwana and Emmanuel K. Boon • Can Benefit Sharing Sustain Participatory Natural Resources Management? The Case of Kiwengwa-Pongwe Forest Reserve in Zanzibar 95-110
8. Theo van der Sluis • Illegal Settlements and Land Degradation in Kalakpa Resource Reserve (Ghana): What are the Solutions? 111-125
9. Kwaku Boakye • Eco-tourism, National Parks and Biodiversity Conservation 127-137
10. Kwame A. Domfeh and Justice Nyigmah Bawole • The Role of Major Groups in the Management of National Parks and Biodiversity Conservation 139-147
11. Patience Agyare-Kwabi • Communication and Outreach Programme for Biodiversity Conservation in Forest Reserves and National Parks 149-156
12. Emanuela Casti • Participatory Mapping and Environmental Conservation in Western Africa: The SIGAP Strategy 157-172
13. Jacob W. Tumbulto • Water Resources and the Management of National Parks 173-183
14. Paul Ouedraogo and Yakubu Issaka Balma • Bush Fires and the Management of National Parks: Burkina Faso 185-194

15. Robert Bamfo • Implications of the Kyoto Protocol for the Management of National Parks ... 195-201
16. Patrick Van Damme • From African Ethnobotanical Biodiversity to Domestication of New Crops for Development 203-212

PART TWO: AFRICAN SUB-REGIONAL CASE STUDIES

17. Charles Takoyoh Eyong and Solvay Gerke • Management of National Parks and Biodiversity Conservation in Africa: Experience from South West Cameroon 213-235
18. Albert Ahenkan and Emmanuel Boon • Forest Reserves and Biodiversity Conservation in Ghana 237-255
19. J. Kipn'getich, E.M. Kanga, R.O. Odongo and D. M. Kyale • Management of National Parks and Biodiversity Conservation in Africa: East African Sub-regional Experiences 257-266
20. Nangwa Noyoo • Biodiversity and Eco-Tourism in Southern Africa: Implications for Sustainable Livelihoods and Poverty Reduction 267-273
21. Lebogang Seitshiro • The Potential for Community Based Natural Resources Management in the Conservation of Nature and the Development of Sustainable Livelihoods: The Case of Botswana 275-290

PART THREE: INTERNATIONAL CASE STUDIES

22. Fernando Dias de Avila-Pires • Biodiversity Conservation: Experiences from Brazil 291-307
23. Vu Van Hieu, Emmanuel K. Boon and Le Xuan Quynh • Participation of Local Communities in Management of Protected Areas and Biodiversity Conservation in Vietnam - Case Study in Cat Ba National Park 309-330
24. Emmanuel Boon and Amie Fletcher • Conclusion 331-332